The Merx logo consists of the word "merx" in a lowercase, sans-serif font, with a stylized 'x' that has a small flame-like shape at its top right. The logo is white and is set against a solid orange rectangular background.

Currently, Lenovo is sited at Changi Business Park and they share the building with IBM. The new office would be at 151 Lorong Chuan, New Tech Park, which is approximately 38,000 sq.ft and the new office will house a total of 230 staff. The Lenovo premise provides a fundamental open plan office for a total of 220 staff, this excludes 32 mobile desks and closed offices. There are a total of 14 meeting rooms (sitting capacity of 4 pax to 14 pax). In addition, there is also a staff break out area designed for staff relaxation and informal meeting. Merx was appointed to act as Project Manager, Construction Manager and Cost Manager.
